The newly-established Tampa area office of the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) could be known as the citrus packinghouse OSHA office. Edward Savage, Tampa Area Director, named the counties served by his office (see map). Packinghouses in these counties accounted for 97.5% of the Florida fresh citrus fruit packed in the 1973-74 season. The first packinghouse visits were made by a Tampa area OSHA representative in December. He reports finding the conditions reasonably good, and looks forward to visiting other packers.
